Flight Information Log

ALP40-K was launched November 11, 2026, from Boulder City Dry Lakebed at 0749 PST, with clear skies and calm winds. It achieved a float altitude of 39,000’ +/-. The balloon transmitted continuously overnight (30 minute interval) indicated by the fact that the CPU reset flag was not set. The most recent report has the balloon over Northern Mexico moving at a speed of 81 KPH.